PHI CHI

RUTGERS COLLEGE

New Brunswick, N. J.

CHARTERED, FEBRUARY 14, 1861

THE early history of Φ X is now largely traditional; when the chapter was founded the keeping of records had not been so well systematized as it later became; the records of the chapter were for many years kept in an iron safe, which, together with all the chapter's other belongings, were burned in the great fire which destroyed the Masonic Hall in the later nineties. So the facts of this history have been obtained from interviews with some of the older alumni, including one of the founders, and from the traditions of the chapter.

In or about 1860, a group of undergraduates of Rutgers College who were not especially attracted to either of the two then existing secret fraternities, Z Ψ and Δ Φ, formed themselves into an association with the idea of obtaining a Δ K E Charter, if possible. Rutgers being one of the old Colonial Colleges, and being of high standing and reputation, deserved in their opinion to be represented by the greatest of all the Greek letter fraternities. They applied to Φ, as was the rule in those days, and after due investigation the charter was granted upon stipulation that the sum of $100 should be paid therefor. This was a lot of money for a crowd of poor Rutgers students, but they stuck together and obtained the required document. At that time Φ was building her new chapter house and our boys considered that they had contributed a very large stone to it in the shape of the $100 fee. Φ delegated N to install the infant chapter. I should judge, from the reminiscent smile of the founder whom I interviewed, that this occasion was one which neither initiators or initiatees will ever forget. It served as the commencement of a friendship between the two chapters which has always been exceedingly warm. Even to this day it is a common occurrence for a group of brothers of one chapter to visit the other.

The earliest chapter rooms were in the lower part of town, in what is now Burnett (then Peace) Street. The furnishings were extremely scanty, as it took the founders a long time to get over the shock of paying that initial $100 to Φ. But in course of time there was improvement. The rooms in Masonic Hall were quite sumptuous. When the fire occurred the chapter began over again, still in rented rooms. In 1899 it puchased the comfortable mansion, No. 78 College Avenue, opposite the college grounds. This house is large enough to afford living rooms for most of the active members and is capable of expansion as the grounds are spacious.

It was purchased by "The Φ X of Δ K E Building Co.," a stock corporation duly organized for the purpose, of which Willard B. Voorhees was President, William H. Leupp, Vice President and Treasurer, and Richard T. Greene, Secretary. The chapter had been laboring under the disadvantage of not owning its home, while its competitors, Δ Φ, Z Ψ, X Ψ, and Δ Y, had for several years had their own homes, and X Φ and B Θ Π had lived in rented houses. The chapter at once felt the impetus given by its new surroundings and entered upon a new career of prosperity.

From the very beginning the Society made a great deal of its literary exercises. The debate, oration, etc., played an important part in the meetings.

A glance through the roll of members will show that Φ X has had a large number of honor and prize men. The chapter has always stood high in all student activities. Among the graduates are numerous authors, jurists, legislators, and other professional men who have taken prominent places in their various walks of life. It is unnecessary to distinguish among those who are living. Among our deceased brothers we remember with affection and pride our brother Alexander Johnston, valedictorian of the class of '70, a most loyal Δ K E, some of whose fraternity songs have become permanent favorites for their true sentiment and depth of feeling. Dr. Johnston's brilliant career as professor of political history at Princeton and as an author marked him for a place among the country's great men, and his early death was an incalculable loss. John Blair Gibbs of '78, was one of the first Americans to give his life in the Spanish-American War.

The chapter is now stronger than at any time in its previous history. Δ K E is by far the strongest of the fraternities represented at Rutgers. The college has taken a new lease of life under its present administration and seems destined to grow to larger proportions and greater usefulness. The chapter is well housed. Imbued with the confidence which the consciousness of substantial merit and prosperity gives, the chapter will go forward to greater power and usefulness, and will always be a worthy unit in the chain of chapters extending from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from Canada to the Southern borders.

CHARTERED, NOVEMBER 8, 1866

THROUGH an acquaintance with John A. Nutter, K, '66, Thomas B. Downs first conceived the idea of bringing a chapter of Δ K E to De Pauw, then Asbury University, an idea which once originated became the guiding principle of his college life and to which we owe our present existence as members of Δ K E. The movement was inaugurated during the fall of 1865, Downs at that time being a senior. He soon allied with himself Bros. Ing, '68; Hopewell, '69; Elliott, '68; Rector, '68, and Robbins, '68, and this small group set forth to obtain a Deke charter. These men were not in any sense derelicts or left-overs from the elections of other fraternities but were strong men in college life and men who could have allied themselves to other fraternities had they so wished. In the words of a previous chronicler, "They were all men of sterling worth and force of character, men, too — bearded veterans of the war, some of them — who stood in the highest rank of scholarship and who seemed to have been gifted with an unusual amount of pluck and determination."

Correspondence with the parent chapter was opened through K and by spring it was known that a charter could not be granted until the next convention, which was to be held at Ann Arbor, June 28, 1866. Meanwhile a committee had been sent from Miami to investigate the petitioning body and had recommended the granting of a charter. As graduation came before this convention met, Downs was forced to leave school without his aim having been fulfilled. This was a disappointment to the group of petitioners and they left school in low spirits. During the summer Downs received a letter stating that the petition had been granted and next fall the petitioners returned in high spirits. November 9 was set for the installation of the chapter and all seemed well. Downs returned, but the delegation failed to appear from Miami. Downs was resolved not to let the matter rest until all was completed, so he waited a few days, and as no letter appeared, went to Miami to find out what was the matter. Friday, November 16, 1866, he returned, proudly wearing a Deke pin on the reverse lapel of his coat and accompanied by J. N. Wyman, K, '67. The delay had been occasioned by the non-arrival of the charter which had been sent on by Yale. Through the persuasion of Downs the chapter at Miami had discussed the matter and had initiated Downs Thursday night and sent him and Wyman with a temporary charter to install the chapter. The memorable meeting took place on that same evening, November 16, at the dead of night in the mayor's office, which had been borrowed for the occasion. Those initiated at this eventful evening were Bros. Ing, Elliott, Stevens, and Hopewell, Bros. Allen and Robbins being out of school at that time but re-entering later. The first Deke pin seen in the chapel of Indiana Asbury was worn by Wyman the next morning and according to a history of the installation in our archives, "There was twisting and gaping and staring among the terrified Greeks that morning and they are still at it," to which a later historian has appended, "And let us hope that they will keep it up until man is a forgotten creature and the walls of our college are dust." The names actually on our charter are: Bros. Rector, Allen, Hopewell, Ing, Robbins, and Stevens and the date of the charter is October 9, 1866.

That the men who laid the foundations of our chapter were men of remarkable character is shown by the fact that they won propositions from the best fraternities then here, even before there was any assurance that a charter would be granted and that when they had the charter they immediately began lifting men. A member of '72 writes: "When I entered school in the fall of '68, the Δ K E's were the leading fraternity, excelling especially in scholarship, oratory and closely knit relationship. The chapter was then somewhat heterogeneous in that it compassed the extremes, viz., some of the wealthiest and some of the poorest boys in college; some of the most pious and an equal contingent of the erratic (though very brilliant); some of the oldest in college and some of the youngest. But through all and in all there was perfect fraternity." Although this statement was written in the earliest days of the chapter it would be hard to write a better description of the present chapter.

The meetings were first held in a room "which was not ornamented in any way save by the color of the brick and mortar used in laying up the walls and by the charter which after some time was framed and hung up 'only on state occasions for fear of the intrusion of the non-elect.'" This room was located on the east side of the square. Later we moved to more commodious quarters and gradually acquired some furniture only to have all destroyed in the conflagration of 1874. For a time Δ K E was a "wanderer on the face of the town, now holding her mysterious gatherings in the closely curtained den of some of her illustrious devotees, afterward in the loft approached by an outside stairway, occupied during respectable hours by 'his honor' the mayor and perfumed by the incense which arose from the altars of Bacchus and at last with gigantic efforts settled in the commodious and well-furnished hall on the west side which we at present (1882) occupy." This was the meeting place of the fraternity until we purchased our own fraternity house, which was first occupied by us in the fall of 1906.

In 1884 a very complete history of the chapter was published from which the quotations in this article are drawn. In this history the interests of the chapter at present are admirably expressed. "We have endeavored to follow to the letter the policy marked out and example set by our founders and early members. How well we have succeeded in scholarship the prize and honor list to which we point with pride will show; our list of alumni, who though young, are almost universally successful, will show. In politics we have been subject to the varied fortunes of combinations, but we have certainly no reason to complain. In progressive movements and enterprises — college and class — Δ K E has ever been the acknowledged head and leader. The jolly good fellowship characteristic of the fraternity at large has no less been a special characteristic of our chapter, as evinced by the enthusiasm of the alumni; and the strong union of stout hearts, which though making no pretentious outward show, is plainly perceptible in our meetings and relations with each other."

That this quotation of 1884 was not mere assertion is shown by the fact that when we turn to the active membership of that time we find the names of Senator A. J. Beveridge, David Graham Phillips, and Pres. Thomas Kane of Washington University. That Ψ Φ has ever stood for such principles is shown by the names of Ex-Lieutenant-Governor Hopewell, '69 of Nebraska; C. G. Cloud, '70, founder of the Cloud prize and generous benefactor of the university; Prof. P. S. Baker, '74, Professor of Chemistry at De Pauw; Dr. J. B. De Motte, '74, member of Philosophical Society of Great Britain and well-known lecturer on psychology; Judge J. F. McClure, '79, chairman Indiana Railroad Commission; S. W. Cantwell, '81, speaker of Indiana House; Suti Ki Chinda, '81, Japanese Ambassador to Germany; Prof. H. B. Longden, '81, Professor of German at De Pauw; C. F. Coffin, '81, winner of Interstate Oratorical Contest and Manager of Indiana State Life; S. L. Brengle, '83, Brigadier General of Salvation Army; F. T. McWhirter, '84, Pres. People's State Bank and Prohibition candidate for Governor in 1904; R. G. Johnson, '88, third Deke from De Pauw to win Interstate Oratorical contest, and Henry McCabe Dowling, '93, second Deke on Indiana State Railroad Commission.

We cannot at present append such titles to our own names, but if high scholarship, Φ B K, active participation in college affairs, the lion's share of political offices, good fellowship, congenial hearts, true ideals and high ambitions, if these things are worth anything, then the active chapter is still pursuing the path laid out by her founders and will in the future add her quota of names to the list above.

CHARTERED, JANUARY 18, 1867

THE splendid record of Γ Φ and her sons may be traced back to the charter members of the chapter. These men, who overcame almost insurmountable obstacles, were men whose courage and strength of personalty is above question. Anyone reading the history of the founding of Γ Φ must be impressed by the manner in which these sturdy men twice received the news of the failure to get the charter. Brother G. B. Martin, '69, wrote: "The failure of our petition for a charter during the fall of 1865, at Rochester, was a staggering blow to our hopes. A crisis was upon us; . . . the keenest disappointment was depicted on every countenance of the devoted league when a telegram, long delayed, reached us, saying, 'Failed.' Hour after hour we had waited, scattered about, so as not to be observed together. Arm in arm we marched in the darkness through the thick gloomy streets, and vowed, so far as we were concerned, the movement should not fail."

During the fall term of 1864, a petition signed by C. P. Mather, H. G. Eddy and H. R. Morrill, of the Class of '66; W. H. Burns, E. R. Hendrix, and John Farnum of the Class of '67, and W. E. Lown, of the Class of '68, was sent to the Φ Chapter. This petition, with a number of others, was presented at the Rochester Convention, held during the fall term of 1865. All these petitions were rejected on technical grounds.

During the next year the men traveled to many of the colleges within reach, and in this manner, formed valuable friendships in these chapters. W. E. Lown left college and went to Ann Arbor. He was made a member of the Δ K E Chapter there, and did all within his power for the men at Wesleyan. It happened that the convention of that year was held at Ann Arbor. All the New England colleges, with the exception of Williams, were in favor of the petition. The Yale delegation, who were the custodians of the Wesleyan petition, failed to reach the convention until it had adjourned. When Lown heard of this situation, he prepared another petition, and pushed within one vote of victory.

Late in the same year, a special convention of the Fraternity was held at Yale. The petition for a charter was presented here, signed by John Farmun, E. R. Hendrix, W. H. Burns, of the Class of '67; G. H. Stone, '68; Charles L. Hamilton, B. L. Miller, G. B. Martin, Lewis Reno, J. R. Cushing, of the Class of '69; I. N. Clements, C. F. Hawkins, J. Welsh, and R. W. Smith, of the Class of '70. This petition was received favorably, and a charter granted to these men by the unanimous vote of the convention.

A few days later, a delegation from the Φ Chapter came to Middletown to install the new Γ Φ Chapter. It is interesting to note Brother Martin's description of the way this news was received by the college. "The next morning we proceeded with our guests in a body to the Chapel, the shining diamond on our breasts. The Yale delegation took seats with our Senior members. It was a complete surprise — a profound sensation. Our secret, strange as it may seem, had been kept up to that culminating moment. We were congratulated on all sides. The Fraternity had conquered a great name before we had shifted, and no doubt we seemed to have grown a little larger to our friends, now that we were fledglings of noble Δ K E. We were immediately recognized, at all events, as a strong power in the college world, exaggerated, perhaps, because unexpected."

As the new chapter had no alumni to support them, it was necessary that they secure a meeting place which would not be too great a burden on their number. It was soon decided that two small rooms on the third floor of one of the stores on Main Street would be suitable.

At this time none of the fraternities at Wesleyan owned houses nor were the eating clubs organized as they are at present. However, a custom which has been peculiar to Wesleyan fraternities was started in the early life of the chapter, namely, the eating club. Their history is, in brief, this: Because of the lack of Fraternity houses, it was thought necessary to find some means of bringing the members of the fraternities together more often than the meetings would. Moreover, living was comparatively high. To overcome these two difficulties, the members of the different fraternities made arrangements with some family in town to prepare and serve meals to the club, the club itself furnishing provisions, and appointing one of their number to look after matters.

The rooms in which the meetings were held served their purpose until 1873. It was voted that the Convention of 1872 be held in Middletown. However, it was impossible to hold it then for lack of orators. It will be remembered that the presidential campaign came at this time, and consequently, men who would be desirable as speakers were busy campaigning. The chapter assumed the responsibility of postponing the convention until the spring of 1873, and immediately began to look around for new quarters. A new building was being erected on Main Street, and the men persuaded the builder to rush it to completion, promising to rent the top floor. Owing to defects in construction, the building collapsed, and the chapter was without rooms. Arrangements were made whereby the entire third floor of another building was secured. The partitions of the rooms were removed so as to make one large hall. The convention here was very successful. Delegates were sent from the Southern universities for the first time since the war. The meetings were addressed by men of prominence both in the fraternity and political world.

In 1883, the chapter found it necessary to either build or purchase a building for a fraternity house in which men could both eat and live. The first of these plans was impractical for various reasons. After some deliberation, the second plan was adopted. There was a substantial stone house on High Street within a few hundred feet of the campus. The building was unoccupied, and in a rather dilapidated state. It was decided to lease this house for five years, with the provision that it could not be sold without first giving the chapter opportunity to buy if they wished, in order to determine whether the place was desirable for a chapter house. A considerable sum of money was immediately spent to make the place habitable. A room was fitted up on the second floor for the purpose of meetings, the basement was used by the matron, one of the large rooms on the first floor was occupied as a dining-room, and the rest of the building was used for dormitory purposes.

When the time for the expiration of the lease drew near, there was no doubt that the chapter should become the owner of the premises. The Kent Literary Club was organized by members of the chapter, and purchased the building and lot in 1888.

The Kent Literary Club is an institution organized under a special act of incorporation of the Connecticut Legislature. The corporation includes all the graduate members of the Γ Φ Chapter, together with such non-graduates as have been out of college three years or more. This corporation owns the property of the chapter, and transacts all business affecting this property. The active chapter are the tenants, and in all business of the chapter are regarded as such.

Γ Φ has contributed her liberal share of the noted sons of Wesleyan University. She has well-known alumni in nearly all professions and in business.

Δ K E became a prominent fraternity at Wesleyan the day it was known that her members had received their charter, and she has always ranked with the fraternity leaders. Her position in this group may have varied from time to time, with the innumerable vicissitudes of college life and politics, but the chapter has never been allowed to be relegated to an inferior position. The innate worth of the founders has found expression in their successes, and every crisis in the history of the fraternity has only served to test the metal of its members, and elevate the position and prestige of our beloved Δ K E.

CHARTERED, NOVEMBER 14, 1867

THIS history of Ψ Ω must need be short. Our life, although one constant triumph, has been uneventful. The first application for a charter of Δ K E was signed by nine of the foremost men in the classes of '68, '69 and '70. These men, one of whom left the Institute before the charter was granted, had all received invitations to other fraternities. Several of them had turned down every fraternity which was here at the time. When the charter was granted on November 14, 1867, Ψ Ω entered into life with eleven members, the three new men being up to the Deke standard in every respect. One of the foremost men in the movement to try to establish Δ K E here was Virgil G. Bogue of the class of 1868, Grand Marshal of the student body.

The existence of the new chapter was kept secret for some time, and it was not until they felt confident of their position in the school that their existence as a chapter of Δ K E was announced. This was done at a ball game. While Bogue, as Grand Marshal, was leading the cheering, his coat was blown aside, revealing his Deke pin. This caused a great sensation, for the other fraternities had not, up to this time, given up hope of getting some of the men who now wore the diamond pin.

The chapter started with several rooms at 271 River Street. It was around these rooms, which were kept for over twenty years, that much of the life of the chapter centered. Finally, in 1892 it was decided that the chapter should give up those rooms and take a house on Fourth Street. This first experiment with a house was not a success, because of the financial panic of 1893, so it was decided to give it up and go back to rooms again. The setback was only for a short time, however, for we soon see them back in a house on Seventh Ave. Ever since that time the chapter has had a house, moving in 1904 into the one which we now occupy.

In the student life at the Institute Ψ Ω has always been a power. As I have said, we started with Grand Marshal Bogue in the chapter. At the next Grand Marshal election several fraternities tried to get our support for their candidates, but, sticking to the policy to keep right at the top, the chapter ran John Pierpont, who won the election by a large majority. From that time to the present we have always been well represented in all student activities — political, social or athletic.

In conclusion I would say that the whole history of Ψ Ω can be summed up in two words (our motto), "Forever Striving." It is this that we have followed, and teach those who come after us to follow. It is this that has made Ψ Ω what she is.

WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY

[WESTERN RESERVE COLLEGE, HUDSON, OHIO, UNTIL SEPTEMBER, 1882]

Cleveland, Ohio.

CHARTERED, NOVEMBER 17, 1868

THE B X Chapter of Δ K E was established December 1, 1868, at Western Reserve College, Hudson, Ohio. To-day it is exceedingly difficult for us to imagine a chapter of B Θ Π applying for and obtaining admission to Δ K E, but such was the fact. It is difficult to assign reasons for the secession of the B Chapter of B Θ Π from the parent body. This movement was started under the leadership of the active B Chapter. Correspondence was opened with several of the chapters of Δ K E, and all letters received in return were favorable to the petition of the B Chapter. This matter was submitted to the next convention, held at Amherst College, October 8 and 9, 1868; the petition was granted and B X became the 33rd chapter of Δ K E.

The charter of B X, granted to them, named as charter members, Messrs. Williams, Sherman, Williamson, Warren, Baker, Baldwin, Beach, and Dodge. At the institution of the chapter by Bro. Heaton of Φ, and at the initiation the following men were taken in: Messrs. Hanford, Kennan, Latimer, Vance, Laylord, Hoyt, Sherwood, and a few alumni members of B Chapter of B Θ Π who had signed the secession petition.

The first meeting of B X Chapter of Δ K E was held December 5, 1868, at which meeting Bro. Ellwood Williams was called to the chair. A committee was appointed to draft a constitution for the chapter. At the next meeting, ten days later, the election of officers was held. From this time on the chapter entered into fraternal relations with the other chapters. Letters of congratulations and invitations to all fraternity activities came regularly.

The chapter immediately entered the college activities with an enthusiasm that assured its success. The college, though small at the time, with an enrollment of from sixty to seventy-five students, was rapidly increasing in size and numbers. With the B X Chapter of Δ K E, there also existed in the college, chapters from A Δ Φ, Φ Γ Δ and Δ Y.

The convention of 1873 was the first attended by a member from B X, Bro. Carey, '74; being the delegate. Beyond the mere mention of the fact that he went, the minutes give no information regarding the convention.

Up to this time no regularity had been observed in holding the meetings; they were held sometimes once a week, more often once in two weeks, but as yet no definite night was set for them. In '73, however, a motion was made and carried to hold the meetings once every two weeks, which policy was pursued until '82, when weekly meetings were begun.

In 1882 the college was removed to Cleveland. For fifty-seven years this little college had thrived in Hudson. Many old associations were broken, many fond memories taken away by this change, but the wisdom of this move has shown itself repeatedly. It was mainly through the financial aid of Amasa Stone that this move was brought about. The name of the college was changed to Adelbert College of Western Reserve University, in memory of Mr. Stone's son who had recently been drowned while at Yale.

With the removal of the college to Cleveland in '82, the advantages which came to the college also helped B X. The chapter was first located in Fairmount Court. Since then it has been located in several places, first in the Hower-Langton Block, then at the corner of Fairmount and Cedar, next on Deering St. and finally at the present location on Adelbert St.

In 1897 the first formal banquet was held. At this banquet all of the Northern Ohio chapters were represented. Banquets are now held annually by B X, and are well attended.

In later years it has ever been the endeavor to introduce into the meetings more of ritual, more of solemnity. And so the result as manifested in the chapter to-day is a history of progress along this line. Laxness which characterized former meetings has been remedied. Now it is a most serious matter to be absent from the Monday night meeting or delinquent on assignments. All of this can not fail to better conditions and it is for further advancement in these respects that we all strive.

In Cleveland B X has proven herself an important factor in college life, in social life, in political life and in business life. In college she has always been in the front rank, in all lines, athletics, studies, general good fellowship, and all college activities. Her internal relations have ever been of the best. May B X ever maintain the high standard set for her by the history of the past.

DELTA CHI

CORNELL UNIVERSITY

Ithaca, N. Y.

CHARTERED, FEBRUARY 11, 1870

OF the Eastern Greek letter fraternities, Δ K E longest continued the policy all once followed — that of selecting institutions for new chapters, and then selecting the men to whom to entrust a charter; and Δ X was the last chapter Δ K E thus established. The 23rd Convention, Bowdoin, October, 1869, selected Cornell and appointed a committee, Sweet and Clark, Φ, '71, and Sloan, B Φ, '70, to visit Ithaca and select the men. They did this at the following Christmas holidays; and after a week of quiet inquiry and "sounding," invited a dozen to meet them and each other at the Clinton House. The group proved mutually well and favorably known, but of such varied character that it took all the tact and logic of the committee to convince its members that the basis on which it was selected was one they should accept. But when each was told just why he and the others had been chosen, all grew enthusiastic and accepted the mission set forth by the committee — to make a compact group of those who had most of "go," and then through mutual loyalty to get the most and the best out of college life.

Φ certified their charter January 10, 1870. February 11th, the Δ X pin was first worn by her single senior, Essayist at the Irving Society's "public"; and later in the evening the chapter's inaugural dinner was held at the Clinton House. Of local rivals, A Δ Φ was creditably strong, K A led town Germans, Z Ψ and X Φ were popular, X Ψ was trying to be exclusive, Φ K Ψ to be literary, and Δ Y "earnest," Δ K E's place was to be won.

The university had but lately opened. Everything was "in the jelly." This was Δ K E's opportunity. The Cornellian, issued in June, showed her membership of but thirteen in all four classes as including Senior Essayist, Sophomore Corresponding Secretary, Orator and Prophet, Adjutant of the Cadet Battalion, Secretary of the Adelphi, one of the three debating societies, and Vice-President of the Irving, another; the Essayist of the Irving's Public;

one of the five founders and largest representative of K Δ, the leading Sophomore Society; Base Ball President, members of the Orphans and Chess Clubs, and the first "four oared" (or any other) college crew Cornell had seen.

Next year, 1870–1, of 618 students, she had 18. A Cornellian editor, Sophomore Essayist, Ordnance Sergeant, Secretary and Treasurer of the Natural History Society, President of the Historical Society and the "Tyrant" of K Δ were Δ K E commonplace. But Cornell's Base Ball Club had swept all before it; and Δ K E had the president, catcher and short-stop of first nine, center and left fielders of second nine, center fielder of third nine, and the champion fraternity nine of the university, the Cricket eleven's captain and two other members. The Cornell Navy had been founded and had started the glorious career with a boathouse, five boats, a Δ K E Commodore and a Δ K E Senior Director. The Athletic Association had opened Cornell's first "Gym," and, with Δ K E's for President, Secretary and Treasurer, was training athletes. On the Era board of five, Δ K E was represented.

Nor was this all. Within eight months from her "swing," the Δ K E Convention had accepted Δ X's invitation to hold its next session at Cornell, as it did in October, 1871. In preparation for it, the chapter got and furnished the finest fraternity hall at Cornell; secured the great University parlors for the closing banquet; organized convention "Public" exercises that were long red-lettered in fame; and had "the regular Δ K E of a time," that was first so christened.

And so it went on. For every one of the chapter's first ten years with never more than 1-25, and generally less than 1-30, of the student body in its ranks, it took the lion's share of student honors — practically the only ones at Cornell. For seven of the ten years the catcher and for the whole ten others of the first nine were Δ K E's. The Navy was largely officered and most frequently commodored by Δ K E's, while others rowed in the crews; and Cornell's great "sweeps" of 1875 and 1876 were made under a Δ K E Commodore and Vice-Commodore, with Δ K E's in the crews, Δ K E in the knot that "begat" the Cornell Yell, a Δ K E of the two marshals that led the Saratoga jubilee processions of both years, a Δ K E to respond for the crews, and a Δ K E to write the song "1875," in which the coincident birth of Cornell's "yell," and Cornell's Naval glory was celebrated. A Δ K E had planned, obtained subscriptions, built and fitted up the first gymnasium on the campus; and when the festival series of Δ X dinners, of which Bayard Taylor was the center, were closed by his death, a Δ K E of Δ X was selected to deliver the address at the unveiling of the memorial to him set up by the University.

In fraternity matters Δ X has furnished the Poet for two conventions, the President for each of three others, the Historian for Δ K E's fiftieth anniversary, and an incorporator and one of the Presidents of the Δ K E Club of N. Y. that for years served as the Δ K E capitol. When the Council was made Δ K E's central body, one of the five and its Secretary was the Δ X delegate, as was also its second President. When the Quarterly was founded Δ X had one of the two men who got out the first volume, and this one edited the next four. Next to Lines and Anderson, and working for years with each, while they rescued chapter and personal data from the wreck of war for our first biographical catalogue, was a member of Δ X.

"Nothing in town — everything on the Hill," may have serious limitations as a principle; but Δ X lived up to it. So serious were the defects of such devotion to student life that class rooms were given second place; but she lived up to that, also; and it would be hard to say who look back with most pride — those who did the impossible and led at once in scholarship and the Navy, the Nine or the Board, or those others who gave to the Navy or the Gym or to work for the chapter so much of the time scheduled for class work that they took their degree only "when they got to it."

Chapter life may have been too strenuous, but it was never tame; the idea of not taking Δ K E into account never occurred to friend or foe; and at more than one crisis members stripped themselves to save the honor of the chapter, and took a year of work outside to obtain funds again.

With the graduation of '79 closed an epoch in Δ X's history. Its delegation was the last in the selection of which the charter members were specially active; and as it passed from undergraduate life the chapter's ideals changed. Not till it had graduated did Δ X deign to undertake the social duties rival Greeks had eagerly assumed — the old status being hinted at in the current saying, that when Δ K E and any other rushed a Freshman, Δ K E got him, and the other got his sister. It was the same with faculty recognition. Δ K E's were awarded commencement honors galore, but Δ K E cared little for them, in comparison with the two Ivy oratorships she won at student elections. The Era editorships were the great student literary honors and so Δ K E fought for them till her line was far longer than that of any other fraternity. She led in founding the Navy; and with the first Commodore and three of his successors, had obtained a Vice-Commodore in every other year but one.

When it is added that there never was a time when she had not her share of the best students, the most finished writers and speakers, the purest and best of the University; those who strove most stoutly for the Chapter's glory in all the lines mentioned; that Cornell students of 1870–80 may have known what they wanted as well as do those of to-day; and that the memory of how Δ X "got there" — just wherever she wanted to be — for year after year still finds a "live wire" in every live old boy — one can understand how little it takes to set his heart strings going at the concert pitch to which Δ X tuned them; and why each is at heart most proud of honors that were not recorded in faculty annals.

The chapter is now larger, its routine better established, its discipline more strict, its conservative forces steadily growing, and the great stone lodge, with its commons, its parlors, its memorials, a center for social life on the Hill, such as of late was undreamed of. But the old spirit still stirs. Even against the halo through which the golden age is seen, the lion banner that in "rush" week is flung out from the tower gives the old Δ K E new thrills; the fraternity and chapter blazons, through the glass of which the sunlight carries the Δ K E colors, are a fresh inspiration; and the lengthening list of brothers "gone before," a growing treasure of memories. Even in the chapter's heroic age one must have wandered wide to have found more of the hero spirit than lately flamed forth when Δ X sent to the Spanish war more of her sons than any other Greek chapter, and when, as the memorial of her dead at San Juan was being placed in the University Chapel, another of her sons was winning distinction as the youngest of Cuban generals — to become Military Governor of Havana and a candidate for the Cuban Presidency; and another, still young, was winning distinction in Porto Rico, as he later did in the Philippines and China.

As this 1910 edition of the catalogue goes to press, and Δ X celebrates her 40th anniversary, the pending chapter enterprise that best merits note is the doubling of her chapter house accommodations so as to provide for thirty-five in residence, besides guests. Thus will be more nearly realized the "college" on the Oxford and Cambridge pattern for which more than twenty-five years ago we bought the one site more dominating the town than any on the campus; and worked out such plans for cloisters, refectory, library and great hall — grouped about a court with gateway and tower — which could be developed through generations, while used from the start. To some, present plans may seem ambitious. But they are modest compared with those we adopted when the University was but a tenth of its present size; and which, as every really "old" member believes, are yet to be realized. The fortunate undergraduates who dwell in the flesh at Δ X's home will be ever more few as compared with the genial ghosts that will make it more homelike.

But may there long be lacking from the number of these the cheerily revered brother of Φ and the much enduring father-brother of Δ X; both known to every member of the Chapter, to which from the beginning they have stood, one as the exemplar of all the humanities of culture, and the other as the one man who best appreciated how many elements must fuse to make a Cornell Δ K E Chapter, what a hot fire it takes to fuse them; and how All's Well that Ends Well — as it always does.

For such will ever be needed on earth — at Ithaca.

UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

Chicago, Ill.

CHARTERED, MAY 22, 1870. INACTIVE, 1885–1894. ACTIVE, 1894—.

IN preparing the history of Δ Δ of Δ K E it is necessary to consider its precursor, the Δ Chapter at the old Chicago University. The Δ Chapter, by a grant from mother Φ, was established in 1870 at Chicago University, which was then located at 34th St. and Cottage Grove Avenue. The existence of the Δ Chapter was comparatively short, for, in 1885, the university closed its doors and the chapter suffered a sudden death. That the chapter had not lived in vain, however, was proved by the loyal Deke spirit of the alumni, the quality of which was to be tested in subsequent events.

In October, 1892, the new University of Chicago, consisting then of only Cobb Hall, situated off the Midway Plaisance, opened its doors. The first class in the new institution contained three Dekes; E. L. Tupper of M, Howard Prescott of B X, and Henry Speer of E. These three immediately started a movement for the organization of a Δ K E Chapter. Arrangements were hurriedly completed, and application for a charter was made in 1892, but it was too late for the convention to vote on it.

That year the little band lost Tupper through graduation, and the following year the brunt of the work fell upon the shoulders of Prescott and Speer. A local club was formed, called B X E, after the respective chapters of these two brothers. The club held regular meetings at the rooms of these men, and work for the charter was systematized. Application for the charter was made in 1893 and was strongly supported by the Northwestern Alumni Association. When the convention met at Minneapolis in October of that year, a number of Dekes from Chicago went to convention to support the petition and the charter was granted. The installation was performed by the Northwestern Alumni Association in December, 1893. The charter members were: H. Prescott, B X; H. D. Speer, E; H. F. Williams, C. S. Pike, F. H. Minard, R. W. Webster, H. C. Caraway, C. B. McGillivray, L. B. Vaughan, and H. C. Ellis.

Of these times there is little record and the files of Δ Δ show few communications. One of importance, however, is from Pres. H. P. Judson, E, '70, then head Dean, in which he highly commends to Bro. Prescott, the men who had been chosen as applicants for a charter. One would naturally expect but little sentiment or tradition in the early records of such a new chapter, but, in looking through the files one is struck by the loyalty that characterized the early members of Δ Δ; their tireless activity in fraternity affairs; their determination not to be outdone by any rival; and the progressive spirit that put the chapter at the front and kept it there. To the zeal and hearty co-operation of the loyal Dekes in the alumni can also be attributed a considerable part of the early success of the chapter. Eri B. Hulbert, Ξ, '67, in the faculty, urged upon his colleagues the recommendation of the applicants; P. H. Smith, O; B. W. Sherman, A A; William Derby, Jr., Φ; Tracy Drake, Ψ Ω, and F. D. Mitchell, Ξ, worked unceasingly for the charter, and were of great assistance in securing for the chapter a strong foothold in the University.

The chapter was started with a class of men who were active in every department of college life. With such a beginning, and with the hearty co-operation of an enthusiastic body of alumni in Chicago, it was the purpose of this little band of ten to maintain the same position of leadership in college activities with which the chapter had started. Before a month had passed, the chapter was increased in number, H. G. Gale, H. T. Chase, Jr., and H. C. Holloway being initiated in January, 1894, this first initiation banquet being given by "Doc." Mitchell, "the patron saint of Δ Δ."

In February, 1894, shortly after the installation of the chapter, a house was secured at 5745 Rosalie Court, but these quarters proved small and inconvenient, and the next year was spent in temporary apartments on Drexel Ave. and 58th St. The following year the chapter moved to larger quarters at 5859 Washington Ave. Here the chapter stayed for several years when it moved to 5826 Washington Ave. This nomadic life was destined soon to cease, for, in 1900, a movement was started to give the chapter a permanent home. Brent Vaughan, Δ Δ, '97, and Willoughby Walling, Δ Δ, '99, were behind the movement and the tireless efforts of these young sons of Δ Δ in securing subscriptions crowned it with ultimate success, and a house, excellently suited to the purposes of the chapter, was secured at 5754 Woodlawn Ave. The house is of Renaissance style of architecture and has an ideal location, being on one of the pleasantest residence streets in this section of the city, and but one block from the University Campus. Here again, the chapter, the first to be established in the University, showed its progressive spirit in being the first fraternity to own its house.

This progressive spirit has always characterized the chapter. Realizing from the first, that success depended upon aggressive participation in student affairs, the men have always entered into intellectual and social pursuits and competition on the athletic field with enthusiasm and spirit. The chapter in numbers has been as low as twelve, and as high as twenty-six, the average being about eighteen, but at all times it has been well represented in college activities, and the men have shown a keen desire honorably to represent their University. This activity has not been confined to any one line, for it has ever been the aim of the chapter to produce the Deke type — the well-rounded man.

Although the chapter is young, some of her sons have already gained national prominence in many lines.

PHI GAMMA

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

Syracuse, N. Y

CHARTERED, NOVEMBER 17, 1871

PHI GAMMA of Δ K E was chartered November 17, 1871, by the annual convention of the Fraternity, which was held that year with the Δ X Chapter at Cornell University.

The movement to obtain the charter of this, the first chapter of any fraternity located at Syracuse University, was begun at the Genesee College at Lima, New York. Just as Syracuse University was the successor of Genesee College, so also was the local chapter of Δ K E the successor of the Scroll and Pen Chapter of the Mystic Seven.

Only one other chapter of the latter fraternity had been established in the northern states. That was the parent chapter at Wesleyan University, known as the chapter of the Owl and Wand. In 1867, upon the general disintegration of the fraternity, this chapter was made a class society, and its former members formed Γ Φ of Δ K E.

The relation between the Wesleyan and Genesee chapters had been most intimate, and this change did not break the tie. From the time that Γ Φ was started, its members were untiring in their efforts to bring about the admission to the Fraternity of the students at Genesee College who were destined to lay the foundation of the Φ Γ Chapter. Several of the applicants left Genesee for other colleges. One went to Rochester and another to Wesleyan, where they become "Dekes," and better able to present the cause of Genesee. At last formal application for a charter was made to the annual convention held with O at the University of Michigan. It was refused. Affairs of Genesee College were in too dubious a condition to permit a charter being intrusted to its students. The institution was tottering, and none knew what its fate would be.

The applicants returned to the college discouraged, yet determined to make another attempt. Then it was that fortune smiled on them. Genesee College ceased to exist, and Syracuse University took its place, being chartered in 1870. The new university opened with bright prospects, and catching something of the spirit of the new era, the "Mystics" of the Scroll and Pen chapter, which, also, had been removed to Syracuse, renewed their efforts to obtain their long-cherished aim. This time came success, but not until after a hard struggle.

To two men may be given most of the credit for the establishment of Φ Γ, Professor John H. Durston, Yale, '69, and Wilbur F. Steele, Wesleyan and Syracuse, '72. Mr. Steele went to Ithaca and presented the cause of the applicants on the floor of the convention. Mr. Durston, who was then professor of modern languages in the university, made a hasty trip to New York to secure some necessary documents and then went directly to Ithaca. When within ten miles of the city he missed railway connections. It was then the last day of the convention, and delay would have been fatal. But Durston was not to be deterred by ordinary difficulties. Without hesitation he chartered a hand car standing beside the station and pumped the last ten miles to Ithaca. He was going against a driving rain storm, and when he entered the convention hall he was in a dilapidated condition. He was just in time. For want of the documents he brought, the convention was about to refuse the charter. By an eloquent plea he, however, changed the attitude of the convention and the name of Φ Γ was added to the chapter roll. Frederick S. Wicks, Yale, '73, was delegated to initiate the charter members, whose names were as follows:

Wilbur Fletcher Steele, '72; Francis Durbin Blakeslee, '72; Roland Sabin Keyser, '72; George Herbert Dryer, '72; Henry Marcus Hill, '72; Warren Mann, '72; John Erastus Weaver, '72; Heman Wright Morris, '72; Francis John Cheney, '72; Delos Cronk, '74; Dallas Davis Lore, '74; Charles Addison Fowler, '74; Samuel Wilson Kress, '75; Melville James Wells, '75; Erastus Watson Godier, '75; William Austin Wood, '75, and Levi Jennison, '75.

An era of prosperity set in after the establishment of the chapter. As the university grew, so did the chapter. Rivals soon appeared, but they were honorable ones and deserved the title of "Our Friends, the Enemy." All flourished except Z Ψ, the third to enter the university, which finally became extinct but has since been revived.

In 1874, William Nottingham, '76, to whose guidance much of the early success of the chapter is due, went as delegate to the convention held with the H Chapter at the University of Virginia, to extend an invitation from the infant chapter for the next convention to assemble in Syracuse. The invitation was accepted, and Syracuse saw its first fraternity convention, which event was the beginning of its reputation as a "convention college." Since then Φ Γ has been the host of two other Δ K E conventions, those of 1895 and 1903.

An uneventful but prosperous period elapsed until the summer of 1881. Then came the first and only great calamity in the history of the chapter. On a July night the old lodge rooms in the Wieting Block, which are dear to the memory of every old graduate, were destroyed by fire, together with the entire block in which they were located. Nothing was saved. The financial loss was considerable, but it was as nothing compared to the loss of records and memorabilia, which can never be replaced. But like the Phœnix, borne above the chapter coat of arms, Φ Γ rose from the ashes of its former life with a new vigor. She overcame the difficulties and entered an era of prosperity. The lodge rooms were rebuilt better than before and were occupied by the chapter for some years.

In the later eighties the chapter house system was inaugurated at Syracuse, and among the first to adopt it was Φ Γ. From that time until the fall of '99, the chapter occupied the house at 1005 East Genesee St. This house was then given up and lodge rooms were secured in the Lynch Building, and rooms upon the hill were rented where the brothers could assemble. Later the chapter moved to quarters in the Bastable Block which were occupied until the present chapter house at the corner of University Place and Walnut Avenue was opened in June, 1903.

For many years it was the dearest wish of every brother to have an ideal chapter house, located within easy reach of the University and possessing all the modern conveniences of a fraternity house. Several ineffectual movements were started by the active chapter, but nothing permanent was accomplished. In 1898 the Central New York Association of Δ Κ Ε, consisting of "Dekes" of all chapters, was organized, and at once started an active movement for a new chapter house. The Φ Γ alumni were especially aided by the following alumni from other chapters: Irving G. Vann, Yale, '63; Dr. John L. Heffron, Colgate, '81; Giles H. Stilwell, Amherst, '61; Ceylon H. Lewis, Colgate, '73; Lewis C. Merrill, Amherst, '99, and many others. A financial canvass was started, and at the commencement banquet, June, 1899, eight thousand dollars was subscribed. This amount combined with that previously secured, formed the nucleus of the building fund. The house was designed by Edwin H. Gaggin, Syracuse, '92, and T. Walker Gaggin, Syracuse, '95, and was opened by the annual banquet of the Central New York Association of Δ Κ Ε, on the evening of June the ninth, nineteen hundred three, 155 brothers being present.

In college affairs, athletic, intellectual, oratorical, literary, and social, Φ Γ has always been represented. For years the chapter controlled and published the Syracusan, a representative college paper. More than its proportionate share of commencement appointments and scholarship honors have come to the members of the chapter.

A hearty college spirit has been maintained among the undergraduates and a loyal support has been manifested by the alumni toward their alma mater. The ideal of the chapter has been a union of the qualities of the scholar and the gentleman and the aim has been the heartiest good fellowship

CHARTERED, 1874

THE Γ B Chapter was chartered in 1874, duly installed and the first meeting held on November 5th of that year.

About 1865, a local society known as the A Chapter of the Fraternity of Ψ Φ was founded in Columbia College and it was this organization that nine years later merged itself into Δ K E, to remain ever since one of the integral parts thereof. It was largely due to the efforts of Mr. Thomas S. Ormiston of the class of '75, C. C. N. Y., that this was brought about.

The merger was not accomplished without much diplomacy, argument and earnest effort. The Ψ Φ alumni and undergraduates at first were strongly opposed to the idea but gradually they were won over by being made to realize the benefits to be derived by the alliance with a great and powerful national organization; application for a charter from Δ K E was accordingly fervently urged, and these efforts were duly rewarded by the 28th Convention, in 1874, creating the B Chapter of Δ K E.

Beta began her career with a membership approximating 18 or 20. Ψ Y, Δ Φ, and Δ Ψ were our rivals at that time.

The designation of meeting places has always been veiled more or less in obscurity. Occasional references in the old minutes have been made to rooms on Broadway, Union Square, Fourth Avenue, Fifth Avenue, and 14th Street.

The years from the installation up to the early '80's may be called the formative period of her existence. All her actions and interests were gradually molding her loose links into a strong chain.

The prominent athletic sport of Columbia at the time was rowing, and B displayed much interest. She supplied men for some of the most famous crews in the '70's and has ever since been very prominent in the Columbia crews.

This brief sketch would not be complete without some acknowledgment of the devotion and unflagging interest shown by brothers Ormiston, Macy, Babcock, Thompson, Booth, Embury, and Holbrook.

In October, 1878, the 32nd Annual Convention was held with B and proved a great success. During the same year B's ranks were swelled to hitherto unheard-of proportions by the absorption of the Columbia Chapter of A Σ X which at that time had good reason for revolting from the latter.

For several years, beginning in 1881, the chapter pursued the even tenor of her way and was occupying rooms at No. 124 Fifth Avenue. It was not until the year 1886 that a storm appeared on the horizon which later developed into a tempestuous gale. In all her thirty years of existence it is doubtful if any more trying period was passed in the life of the chapter.

Shortly previous to the convention held in 1887 a movement for the re-establishment of some of our old Southern chapters, rendered extinct by the Civil War, assumed strength, especially with regard to the chapter at the University of North Carolina, chartered in 1851, under the name of B. Upon applying for revival their alumni expressed a request to have their old name of B restored.

B at Columbia, by this time thirteen years of age and very powerful and influential, was anything but in favor of relinquishing the name under which they had so loyally worked. Excitement ran high with neither chapter giving in until finally North Carolina consented to use B A. The change was only a makeshift, however, and the name B was again granted to our Southern brethren.

The final settlement of this affair was not consummated until the 42nd Convention, held in 1888, when after a two years' discussion and remarkable display of stubbornness on the part of both chapters, B of Columbia surrendered and accepted its present name, Γ B. Brother Clarence Lexow, afterwards State Senator, represented the Columbia chapter in this controversy.

Conventions were held in New York in 1890 and again in 1894, the latter the famous 50th anniversary of the foundation of the fraternity. The twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the chapter was fittingly celebrated on December 15, 1899, by a complimentary dinner held at the Hotel Savoy, given by the undergraduates and alumni to the charter members.

There were eleven of that "Guard of Honor" present: Brothers Barnard, '68; Dorsett, '72; Haldane, '72; Drisler, '74; Rapallo, '74; Babcock, '75; Holbrook, '75; Waldstein, '75; Embury, '76, and Booth, '78. Telegrams of regret were received from Brothers Ormiston, '75; C. Waldstein, '75; Adams, '72, and Lexow, '75.

From the small beginning of thirty-six years ago, Γ B has developed into a powerful and sturdy chapter with a total membership of 472 men. From a modest organization with a place for an occasional meeting once in a few days she has become a prosperous chapter with a splendid house of her own and a concrete and loyal body of undergraduates, and alumni whose influence and devotion have ever been given in her interest.

Her honors in the Fraternity have been many and frequent. Six times has the presidency of the convention come to her and rarely a year has gone by that she has not held one or more of the offices on the Council.

In 1897, Columbia University moved from Madison Avenue and 49th St. to its present site on Morningside Heights. It was then that Γ B became the proud occupant of its first chapter house at the corner of 119th St. and Manhattan Avenue; this house was leased. Undergraduate interest was awakened — chapter and fraternity spirit grew like wildfire. Day by day, however, the necessity of housing the chapter in a house of its own became more evident. This led to the formation of a Building Committee, composed of earnest and devoted alumni, among whom were: Brothers Embury, Conover, Harrington, Maxwell, Ormiston, Woodward, Brinckerhoff, Hall, and Bradley. This committee after a great amount of painstaking work incorporated itself into the B Association. A canvass was made among the alumni for subscriptions, and the present property, No. 608 West 113th St. was accordingly purchased for $30,000, in May, 1903.

The house is considered ideal for the purpose and Γ B feels that she should be congratulated on its acquisition. It is a four-story brick building situated within a few feet of Riverside Drive and three short blocks from the University. Since its purchase the chapter has been working steadily with inherent ardor for the grand and powerful Fraternity of which it is proud to be a part.

THETA ZETA

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

Berkeley, Cal.

CHARTERED, DECEMBER 8, 1876

THE University of California was created by act of the State Legislature, approved by the Governor, March 23, 1868, and instruction was begun in Oakland, September 23, 1869, with 40 students and a Faculty of ten. Commencement of 1873 was held in Berkeley, and the University moved to the present site in September, 1873. Situated two miles east of San Francisco Bay on the first slope of the hills that overlook the magnificent harbor, the college buildings face directly upon the Golden Gate and the broad Pacific beyond. There were but a half dozen residences besides the student club houses and hotels. Communication with Oakland and San Francisco was slow and uncertain and practically all the student body lived in Berkeley. It was essentially and exclusively a college town — fit time and place to establish a fraternity with the record and traditions of Δ K E. In 1876 the student body not including the professional colleges numbered 300 and there existed chapters of the Z Ψ, Φ Δ Θ, and X Φ Fraternities, founded respectively in 1870, 1873, and 1875.

For some time the establishment of a chapter of one of the leading Eastern fraternities had been the earnest desire and the continued endeavor of a small body of students. Of the patient work, the long consultations, the "hope deferred," it is not necessary to write. They are the history of all our chapters. But those who were engaged in the earliest struggles will always retain in kind remembrance the words of encouragement and active assistance of the earnest and enthusiastic Δ K E's in San Francisco and vicinity. George L. Beaver, Φ, '74, gave his personal attention to detail work. Great aid was rendered by Hon. W. E. Greene, Θ, '63, relative of a charter member, Brother Webster, and father of two later Δ E K's; by Fred E. Brooks, M, '73; Charles Wood, Ψ Ω, '72; Fisher Ames, Π, '69; Thomas B. Bishop, Y, '64; A. G. Booth, Σ, '70; John W. O. Breckenridge, H A, '69; W. F. Harrison, Θ X, '66; John R. Jarboe, Φ, '55; E. S. Pillsbury, Θ, '63; M. Hall McAllister, Φ, '49. The approval of Professor (afterwards President), Martin Kellogg, Φ, '50, and Professor Edward Rowland Sill, Φ, '66, members of our Faculty, greatly aided our cause.

It can be imagined with what feelings the information was received at the close of October in a cautiously worded telegram that the convention had decided unanimously that a chapter of the Fraternity would be instituted at the University of California. Under authority of a charter issued from Φ, our parent chapter, to Peter T. Riley, Reginald H. Webster, William E. Jory, William J. Kingsland, George H. Hudson, Walter B. Jones, Charles L. Tilden, James Lee Cotton, and Sherrod Williams, the Θ Z Chapter of Δ K E was established. The initiation took place in a suite of the Grand Central Hotel, 12th Street, Oakland, on the night of December 8, 1876. The ceremonies were conducted by Brother George L. Beaver, assisted by Brother J. W. O. Breckenridge. There were also present: A. G. Booth, Σ, '70; George Burbeck, Π, '75; W. F. Harrison, Θ X, '56; W. S. Pinney, T, '69, and Charles Wood, Ψ Ω, '72. The occasion was solemn and impressive, and none present will forget the eloquence of Brother Breckenridge, as he prophesied for the new-born chapter a destiny that Θ Z has endeavored to fulfil. The next day one of the initiates "swung out" with a large Yale pin. The first pins of the chapter, with pearl and diamond border, arrived from the East early in the following spring.

It being impossible to obtain quarters in Berkeley, the Grand Central Hotel continued to be the meeting place of the chapter until February 19, 1878, when meetings were held in a room in the yet uncompleted Odd Fellows' Hall on Shattuck Avenue and Addison Street, Berkeley.

Those were indeed "the days of the empire," and never to be forgotten are the hurried talks on the campus, the whispered word in the college halls, the night strolls under the stars or in the wind-driven fog, and the councils of war in some fellow's room, when chapter houses and fraternity halls took form in the thickening smoke-wreaths. How we delighted in the rare visits of brothers from our eastern chapters and how eagerly we listened to their stories of Δ K E trials and triumphs in the old colleges across the continent!

September 15, 1881, Θ Z moved into her first real home, leasing the Professor Welcker house at Bancroft Way and Ellsworth Street, Berkeley, and here the members lived in their first close comradeship. Slowly but surely the chapter grew and prospered. The principle established early and ever afterward maintained, that the chapter should die rather than that an unworthy man should be initiated, bore fruit. After two years the Chapter moved to the house at the northwest corner of Dwight Way and Telegraph Avenue. Meetings were held in the later 80's in Clapp's Hall at Shattuck Avenue and Berkeley. The next home was on the north side of Dwight Way, between Fulton and Ellsworth Streets, which in 1891 the chapter left to occupy the Shattuck mansion on Shattuck Avenue near Allston Way. With its broad lawns and extensive grounds this spacious home was the finest fraternity house in Berkeley, and Δ K E's of the '90's will recall the many brilliant functions and happy reunions held here.

On July 24, 1884, through R. Rickard, Esq., father of two Δ K E's, a lot was obtained on very generous terms on the southeast corner of Berkeley Way and Dana Streets, as a site for a future home for Δ K E. With wise forethought a house fund had been provided for shortly after the institution of the chapter. December 30, 1895, this lot was exchanged in purchase of the lot 100 by 130, at the southwest corner of Durant and Telegraph Avenues. Through the generosity and financial management of Brother Thomas B. Bishop, father of four Δ K E's of Θ Z, and Charles L. Tilden, the present clubhouse was erected, and in 1897 the chapter moved for the last time to this beautiful home. As it is now situated in the heart of the business section of Berkeley, it is probable that in the near future the present Δ K E House must give way to a business block, in which event the chapter will build a suitable home on a site already being considered. The present house is one of the most prominent buildings of the college town. It was practically uninjured by the earthquake of 1906. It is capable of accommodating thirty members and its halls have for many years extended a warm hospitality to visiting Δ K E's. Open house is kept on all University Days.

Of the generosity of the chapter members it is impossible to write in detail. Everyone has contributed toward the building and furnishing of the house. The stained glass memorial window showing the arms of the Fraternity is the gift of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Merrill of San Francisco, in memory of their son Henry Charles Merrill, a cherished and deeply mourned brother of Θ Z. We recall the generosity of Mrs. W. S. Goodfellow, of Oakland, mother of three Δ K E's; of Attorney-General G. A. Johnson, Φ, '53; John R. Jarboe, W. L. Oge, O, '70.

For many years title to the chapter property was held by Brother Charles L. Tilden, Trustee. April 16, 1909, the chapter incorporated under the laws of this State, as "California Alumni of Δ K E," to which body the property was conveyed and in which it now vests.

In 1878, the first banquet of Δ K E on the Pacific Coast was held in San Francisco under the auspices of Θ Z, and similar reunions have since been held annually in the same city, in conjunction with the Σ P Chapter since its institution. The banquets are attended by Δ K E's from all over the State and Coast.

Θ Z has always taken a prominent part in football, baseball and every other form of college activities. Among her members have been some of the most famous athletes and the brightest writers and speakers of the university.

The chapter has been represented at every convention by an active member when possible, and appreciates especially the honor conferred on her delegate, Tyler Henshaw, '11, elected President of the convention of 1909.

One honorary member has been initiated, the late Attorney-General Thomas H. Williams, a highly honored citizen of Nevada and California, the father of two Δ K E's whose early work in the chapter is remembered by all.

October 14, 1891, Θ Z appointed a committee to consider and take steps concerning the establishment of a chapter at the newly-founded Leland Stanford Jr. University — action which has since resulted in our splendid Σ P Chapter at that institution.

While every member of the chapter has done his full duty, we must refer especially to the work of Brother B. P. Wall, whose hospitality, kindly advice and assistance during many years helped and encouraged the chapter; to brother Charles L. Tilden, who has ever aided the struggles of Θ Z, and to Brother Wilder Wight, whose work in the past two years has placed the records, archives and accounts of the chapter in a perfect condition, and who has located and corresponded with every living alumnus.

Θ Z has initiated 256 members, of whom 27 are dead — we cherish them ever in tenderest memory. Her living sons are scattered from the Atlantic Coast to the Philippines and from Alaska to the Transvaal; but in each "September's golden month," the hearts of all turn in fond remembrance to the hall dim-lighted by the sacred fire, where the Mystic Circle again is formed and fresh young voices in the ringing chorus of the old songs tell of another link added to the golden chain of Δ K E.

Θ Z was our first chapter established west of the Mississippi. The University of California has grown to a student body of 3,500 in all departments and a faculty of 550, with 9 sororities and 31 fraternities. In the thirty-three years of her existence our chapter has ever maintained the high traditions of the Fraternity, and in all conditions and under varying educational policies has been a conservative element of dignity, loyalty and strength in the college world.

To her sister chapters she sends her warmest greetings. On the farthest western edge of the nation, where the Pacific laps the shores of the old Conquistadores, Θ Z keeps the faith.

TRINITY COLLEGE

Hartford, Conn.

CHARTERED, MAY 5, 1879

AT the opening of the fall term, 1877, in Trinity College, there were a comparatively large number of undergraduates, not members of any secret society. This was particularly the case with the Class of '80, which had been increased by a number of men who manifested little desire to join any society. This body of "Neutrals," as they were called, constituted no less than one-third of the class.

Among these "Neutrals" were a number of men who, although they had been sought by one or more of the societies, owing to a dislike for their policies, had refused all such overtures. In fact, the peculiar methods adopted by the societies in the college politics, their reputation and obvious tendencies had aroused opposition on the part of the entire "Neutral" body.

The societies represented in college at that time were, Δ Ψ, Ι Κ Α, Φ Κ (now Α Δ Φ), and Β Β (Ψ Υ).

The necessity for a change in affairs was felt by all, not connected with the above-mentioned societies. After deep deliberation, on the part of the most prominent men, the only line of action that presented itself was the founding of a chapter of some established and reputable Greek letter fraternity. It must not be a local affair, but a fraternity with a name and reputation, with influence and authority, with recognized principles and established precedents. Such a society, it was thought, by preserving a high standard of honor and integrity among its members would compel the other societies to elevate their own standards, in order to compete with it in rushing; and would thus purify the college atmosphere and eliminate certain abuses. It would also have sufficient strength to break up the league that had been formed between the four existing societies, and bring about a more equitable division of the offices. As a first and most necessary step, in carrying out this line of action, the "Clio Literary Society" was formed. The members of the "Clio" as it was originally constituted were as follows: John Chester Barrows, Lawson Brewer Bidwell, Henry Campbell Black, Arthur William Burroughs, David Law Fleming, and Henry McBride, of the class of '80, and Walter Davidson Bidwell, Charles Smith Cook, Simeon Lord Gilberson, Alfred Poole Grint, Adolph William Reineman, and Frederick Herbert Rowse of '81.

One of the first movements of the "Clio" was to engage for its use a fourth-story room in a building on Main Street in Hartford, near the bridge over the Park river. There was certainly nothing pretentious about the room, but it answered the purpose very well. This society was a hard-working club, admitting no nonsense, desperately in earnest. Nothing was done at first, but early that winter the members began to hold meetings regularly every Wednesday evening, when the routine business would be transacted and a literary schedule carried out. They began to plan for the second step in the line of action; namely, the securing of a charter from some Greek letter fraternity, whose standards, as far as could be learned by outsiders, seemed to come nearest to those established by "Clio." After considering several of the most prominent, it was decided to petition Δ K E for a charter.

A petition was sent by the "Clio" Society to the 32nd annual convention of Δ K E which met in New York in 1878. After some delay this petition was accepted and a charter granted. On May 5, 1879, the "Clio" was inaugurated and became known as the A X Chapter of Δ K E. A X at once began to take an active part in college affairs. From the very first, by the most earnest work, she took her place as the leader of the societies and has maintained it ever since, although such fraternities as Ψ Y and A Δ Φ have chapters now established at Trinity. She has held many important offices and college honors and yet has always preserved those standards for which she was first organized.

In 1880 the 34th annual convention was held in Hartford under the management of A X, and although still an infant, she made a very creditable showing. As time went on her quarters in the Times building became more and more crowded and inadequate. The necessity for a house of her own became greater and greater. Finally, with the aid of a few of our most active alumni, a subscription was started. The alumni, as a whole, responded nobly, with the result that in 1901 a beautiful house was built and furnished. In the fall of that year the chapter moved into its new home at 94 Vernon Street.

In the fall of 1908, the convention was held again in Hartford, this time both "Mother" Φ and A X acting as hosts. It is not necessary to comment on this, as it happened so recently that everyone remembers it vividly.

On May 18, 1909, we celebrated our 30th anniversary in an appropriate manner. Many of our alumni have become prominent men in the professional, business and religious world. At present the chapter is in first-class condition. We still more than hold our own in college affairs. We get the choice of the new men at rushing and still maintain to the best of our ability those standards first established by "Clio."

PHI EPSILON

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

Minneapolis, Minn.

CHARTERED, OCTOBER 16, 1889

PHI EPSILON Chapter was founded at the University of Minnesota in 1889. Previous to that time, during the Presidency of Dr. Folwell, two formal applications for Δ K E Charters were refused by the convention. The delegates in each case were worthy young men; but the Fraternity in its wise policy of conservatism was unwilling to place a chapter in any institution which was not on an established basis, and the University at that time seemed hardly up to the required standard. In 1884, Cyrus Northrop (Φ, '57) succeeded to the Presidency and a period of growth and development set in. On three occasions, attempts were made by as many different groups of students to obtain a Δ K E Charter, and on each occasion the local Δ K E Alumni felt that the time was hardly ripe for such a movement to receive their approval. When, however, the year 1889 brought overwhelming evidence of the prosperity of the institution and of the increasing number of desirable young men who were becoming students, it was clear that at last the time had come for action. At that time, two Δ K E Alumni, strangers to each other, both newcomers to the city, and neither connected with the faculty of the University, simultaneously formed a plan to organize the chapter. A nucleus was at once gathered of the students who were from Δ K E families, and several others were under consideration.

At this juncture a new element appeared. The local chapter of the Φ Δ Θ Fraternity, some fourteen in number, learned of the movement and asked to be included. Their statement was that they were not in sympathy with their fraternity and desired to leave it and to be permitted to petition for a Δ K E Charter. These men, who now applied, were known to be of suitable character. No suggestion or inducement that they should break with their old fraternity had ever been offered by any member of Δ K E. They were told very explicitly that they were by no means advised to leave their fraternity — that no promise could be made, that no negotiations could be had with them as a chapter or as fraternity men — that if they should become non-fraternity men, their applications would then be considered as individuals and they must assume all the risks. The chapter thereupon took such action, resigned from Φ Δ Θ, surrendered their charter, and joined with six other petitioners to the XLIII Convention, held at Boston, in asking for a charter from Δ K E. After due investigation of the circumstances, the Council made a favorable report on the application and the Convention granted the charter October 17, 1889.

On the evening of December 11, 1889, about forty Δ K E Alumni, representing fourteen chapters, gathered at the Holmes Hotel, Minneapolis, to assist at the birth of the new chapter of the Fraternity. The ceremonies of initiation and presentation were under the auspices of the Northwestern Δ K E Alumni Association of Minneapolis. Promptly at eight o'clock, the novitiates to the number of twenty were brought before the assembled alumni and a solemn and impressive initiation was begun. The following were the charter members:

Edward M. Spaulding, Herbert Gilman Richardson, William Bennett Bebb, Douglas Andrus Fiske, John Ernest Merrill, Ernest Arthur Nickerson, Ripley Bernard Brower, William Webb Harmon, Alden Joseph Blethen, Jr., Elon Obed Huntington, Everett Buell Kirk, Edwin James Krafft, George Thomas King, Walter S. Davis, Wallace H. Davis, Arthur Jay Farnsworth, George Plummer Merrill, Cyrus Northrop, Jr., Henry Thomas Lee, Jr., R. B. Farming.

At the conclusion of these ceremonies, Rev. D. J. Burrell, D.D., (Φ, '67), president of the Association, presented the charter, which was received on behalf of the chapter by the senior members of the delegation. The influence of President Northrop as well as of President George E. McLean (E, '71) of Iowa State University, and President Harry Pratt Judson (E, '70) of the University of Chicago, had been earnestly exerted to procure the charter for the new chapter, and they were all present at the installation to welcome it and to extend their best wishes for its future.

The chapter has grown with the University and has maintained a prosperous existence ever since its installation, and remains one of our most loyal chapters.

CHARTERED, NOVEMBER 14, 1890

THE Σ T Chapter was founded in 1890, a charter being granted that year to the A Γ K Society, which had been established two years before with the object of securing affiliation, if possible, with the Δ K E Fraternity. At that time there was little social life at the Institute and none of the prominent national fraternities were represented. Therefore, in October, 1888, several members of the Class of '90, recognizing the need and desirability of a first class literary and social society, met and organized as the A Γ K. From the beginning, high moral principle and mental ability as well as good social standing were deemed requisite for membership; and a connection with an influential fraternity was considered the best means of maintaining such a society. After careful and deliberate consideration of the aims and purposes, the Δ K E Fraternity was chosen as the one with whose standards the A Γ K was most in sympathy; and General Francis A. Walker, president of the Institute and a loyal alumnus of the Amherst Chapter, gave his encouragement and hearty support. Accordingly at the 1889 Convention of the fraternity. held in Boston, a petition was presented and was favored by a long list of prominent Δ K E alumni, among whom may be mentioned General Francis A. Walker, Prof. Charles Livermore, Prof. Alfred E. Burton, Hon. John D. Long, Dr. Henry O. Marcy, Dr. Myles Standish, Samuel L. Powers, Arthur C. Walworth, Andreas Blume, Elmer E. Silver, George A. Tucker, H. Burr Crandall, Winfield S. Slocum, and many others.

The application was favorably received, but as previously no chapter had ever been organized outside the classical colleges and it was establishing a precedent to found a chapter at a technical institution, action was deferred until the following year. Meanwhile A Γ K continued in influence, holding fortnightly meetings of a literary as well as social character.

In June, 1890, an application for a charter was again sent to the Δ K E

Council and efforts were renewed to secure favorable action thereon at the convention to be held the following November in New York. William S. Dutton (B X, '87), who was pursuing post-graduate work at Technology, interested himself in A Γ K and with two or three other Dekes, likewise at the Institute, directed the members in their active work before the convention. Hon. Frank D. Pavey (Φ, '84), of the Council also became a zealous advocate in their behalf.

The New York Convention of 1890, proved a memorable and interesting one. The question of withdrawing the charter from the Harvard Chapter called forth a long and bitter debate and for a time threatened the success of the A Γ K. Finally, however, it was voted not to withdraw the Harvard Charter that year and it was unanimously decided on Saturday, November 15, to grant a charter at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology to the A Γ K Society.

Σ T was selected as the name of the new chapter in recognition of the support and encouragement given by General Walker, president of the Institute and an alumnus of the Σ Chapter, and by Professor Livermore, member of the T Chapter. Σοφία Τεχνὲ (wisdom and skill) was chosen as her motto to express her aspirations.

The installation of the new chapter took place Saturday evening, December 6, 1890, at the old Tremont House. The fourteen charter members: Robert Steele Ball, Frederick Chambers Blanchard, Severance Burrage, Gary Nathan Calkins, Frederick Griswold Coggin, Lawrence Belmont Dixon, Arthur George Farwell, Arthur Edwin Fowle, Leonard Metcalf, Frank Eaton Newman, Frederick Titcomb Snyder, James Swan, Elton David Walker, and George Vincent Wendell, were initiated; and, after an excellent dinner, addresses were made by prominent representatives of various chapters of the fraternity. William Stillman Dutton (B X, '87) also joined as one of the initial members, having been actively interested in the establishment of the chapter from the beginning.

In the early days there was no attempt to maintain a chapter house, but a room for meetings was hired in Union Park at the South End and initiations were conducted usually at the Parker House. In 1892, the house, No. 56 Chester Square was secured and to all intents and purposes was a chapter house; for by an arrangement with the landlady none but members of Σ T could secure rooms there. The following year (1893), a lease of No. 38 Chester Square was taken and the chapter at last occupied a house of its own. Soon after, the Square became a part of Massachusetts Avenue, the house then being numbered 563. For seven years this house served as a home for the members of the chapter; and many are the memories still associated with the old place.

Previous to 1894, the initiations had been, at least in part, at some hotel. In November of that year, however, the entire ceremony was held at the chapter house and this custom has continued ever since. In December, 1895, provision was made for organizing the finances of the chapter upon a more permanent basis under alumni supervision. Three trustees were selected and each member of the chapter was asked to subscribe a definite sum for a period of years after graduation to a fund towards the purchase of a chapter house in a locality nearer the Institute.

Finally, in the summer of 1900, with the generous aid and support of Dr. Henry O. Marcy, and our own alumni, the present chapter house at 215 Newbury Street was purchased. In May, 1904, an alumni body became incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts with Walter Humphreys, Allen W. Jackson, Henry O. Marcy, Jr., Benjamin F. W. Russell, and William O. Sawtelle as trustees for the purpose of "promoting the interests of the Σ T Chapter of the Δ K E Fraternity and providing for the intellectual, social and general advancement of its members and to establish and maintain a suitable place for association and accommodation." This was called the "Σ T Corporation."

Each year has been marked by advancement, and forecasting the future by reference to the past the prospects of Σ T are bright and reassuring.

TULANE UNIVERSITY

New Orleans, La.

CHARTERED, NOVEMBER 17, 1898

A CHARTER was granted the Tulane Club, a sub-rosa organization of students of Tulane University of Louisiana, by the Detroit convention on November 17, 1898.

This charter was the first to be granted by the Fraternity in nine years and the ultra-conservative policy of restricting the chapters of the Fraternity to those already established was replaced by one of judicious extension. The change was accomplished only after a hard-fought contest, and to the supporters of the Tulane University applicants is due the credit, and to the applicants themselves is due the honor of having been the first new chapter to enter the opened door after all those years. One twin sister of McGill followed at the same convention and together with those other worthy chapters which have been added to the list of Δ K E is increasing and upholding the strength of our beloved Fraternity.

The history of the Tulane Club can be briefly summarized as follows:

It was organized for the express purpose of securing a charter from Δ K E.

Two Alumni Dekes, T. L. Bayne, Φ, and Leonard Keiffer, Δ X, desired that a club be formed of Tulane University students which, when organized, should apply to the Fraternity for a charter after having secured the endorsement of resident members of the Fraternity, especially those in the faculty and in the University as students.

When the 1897 convention was held in Chicago, a representative of Tulane club was present to ascertain the proper procedure in the presentation of a formal application and also to ascertain if possible the views of the delegates on the proposition to place a chapter in Tulane University.

To Secretary Simpson is due the outline of the campaign which ended so successfully. Not only did he assist by explaining every detail to be followed but by encouragement which was absolutely necessary.

On January 25, 1898, the application was signed and forwarded to the Council. Two of the signers were already members of the Fraternity. The endorsers numbered nineteen, including the president of the University, W. P. Johnston, Φ; two members of the board of administration, Cartwright Eustis, A, and W. D. Denegre, A, and one faculty member, J. B. Elliott.

Those of the alumni who especially interested themselves in behalf of the Tulane Club were: W. C. Nelson, X; Alex Black, Γ B; T. L. Bayne, Φ; L. Keiffer, Δ X. and H. Bering, Δ X.

The other alumni who signed the application were: E. L. Simonds, Φ; C. Hyams, A; G. Vairin, X; D. Urquhart, A; W. B. Jackman, Δ X; G. P. Hamilton, X; W. P. Richardson, A; W. M. White, Ψ; Dr. Hall, Oakland University, Miss.; H. Pettit, Γ.

The Council recommended that a charter be granted, and this report was made to the Convention of 1898, at Detroit.

W. M. White, Ψ, was sent to represent the club, his membership entitling him to the floor, a privilege which was all important at that time. His laconic message of victory was: "Prepare the fatted calf; I have succeeded," dated November 17, 1898.

The chapter was installed December 26, 1898, at the Denegre Building, at 8 P. M. The initiation committee was as follows: W. D. Denegre, A, Chairman; C. Eustis, A; Alex Black, Γ B; E. L. Simonds, Φ, Secretary.

Two of our beloved charter members have joined the ranks of the majority, Brothers Harral and Gibbons.

The chapter has always maintained a suite of rooms in a convenient location, and recently moved into its own house at 63 Audubon Place, adjoining the campus. Last year, because of the many Dekes residing in New Orleans, it was found advisable to form an Alumni Association.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Toronto, Canada

CHARTERED, NOVEMBER 17, 1898

AFTER several years of preliminary organization, a number of men, known as the "Caducus Club," applied to the Council of Δ K E for a charter at the University of Toronto, early in the year of 1898. In November of the same year, at the annual convention, held in Detroit, the charter was granted.

The installation of A Φ took place on February 27, 1899, the committee sent over to conduct initiation were: Bros. F. D. Williams, A. G. Warren and Dr. A. N. Brockway, of the council. The ritual of B Φ was used, the modified form of which is used by the present active chapter to-day. The charter members of A Φ were: Geo. H. Black, '98; N. E. Hinck, '98; W. G. Fitzgerald, '98; C. M. Carson, '98; A. H. Montgomery, '98; J. R. Bone, '99; F. D. McIntee, '99; W. C. Douglas, '99; W. A. R. Kerr, '99; A. E. Snell, '99; J. R. Parry, '99; G. W. Hastings, '99; A. N. Mitchell, '00; P. A. Greig, '00; J. H. Ross Gillespie, '00; Frank Morrison, '00; D. Worts Smart, '00; C. R. Fitzgerald, '00.

The young chapter started its life in several rooms near the college, but in October, 1899, it had grown to such strength that a house was taken to accommodate the ambitious members. This house was situated at 42 Murray Street. It was here in the first home of A Φ that the hopes and plans for a chapter house owned by themselves were founded.

It might here be mentioned that this location was directly opposite the chapter of A Δ Φ, then one of the oldest and strongest fraternities in the University of Toronto. This fact, with others, was an incentive to the new chapter, and it was not long before their strength was equal to this large and firmly established fraternity. This statement alone, shows the good material of which our charter and our earlier members were made.

After occupying this house for several years, a movement was started to find a house and to purchase it for the use of the chapter. The lease of this house expiring in the spring of 1904, caused the members to hurry matters. But, to use an old and wise saying, "Rome was not built in a day," and, so the chapter took temporary premises at 598 Huron Street.

The year spent in this house saw the strength which existed in the chapter fully displayed. The men were unsettled, house arrangements were unsatisfactory, but a good condition of affairs resulted. In the spring of 1905, a charter was obtained from the legislature, granting a limited company, known as the Δ K E House Co. of Toronto, the right to purchase and run a house for club purposes.

The summer following was spent in search of a suitable house, the result being that a very satisfactory dwelling, with grounds, was purchased at 91 Wellesley St. Sufficient subscriptions were obtained for a first payment on the purchase, two mortgages being given for the balance. Since that time, the first mortgage has been paid off, and the second is now in process of being removed also, so that to-day, A Φ of Δ K E owns its own house, the finances of the chapter being in the best possible condition. The assessed value of the house and property is fifteen thousand dollars. Many improvements have been put into the house, which is to-day one of the most suitable for a fraternity and in particular for A Φ of Δ K E. It is now carried on to accommodate twenty men in residence, the large and comfortable club rooms being used by the fraternity at large.

The life of A Φ Chapter of Δ K E has been all eventful and historical. The high standards in college, and every day life, set by the charter members, have been earnestly and carefully kept up. Now, as in the earlier days, her members are prominent leaders in every sphere of life. Studies, sport and college, social and executive life, all have their share, and so, it is with pride that all members of A Φ look back through the short but glorious career of a chapter which to-day holds one of the highest positions of esteem and good standing in the University of Toronto, not only with the college at large, but in particular with the faculty of all departments and branches.

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

Philadelphia, Pa.

CHARTERED, NOVEMBER 16, 1899

THE early history of the chapter dates back to the spring of 1897, when Brother Casey, B Φ, '95, and '98, Med., at Pennsylvania, made an effort to gather the ten or twelve alumni Dekes, then attending the university, into a graduate Deke Club, with the expectation of forming an alumni association in Philadelphia. These Dekes were all in the professional schools, and could therefore devote very little time to the matter. It remained for Brother Charles Ayrault Upson, of the class of 1900, to be the real founder of the Δ K Chapter, acting upon the suggestion of an enthusiastic Deke sister, Mrs. Evans, wife of Brother Anthony H. Evans, T, '82, daughter of Brother A. P. Kelsey, T, '56 (founder of the T Chapter), and sister of Brother Robert Kelsey, also of T. Brother Upson then commenced sounding the Dekes at Pennsylvania, who regarded it favorably. In the early fall of 1898, he wrote to Brother D. B. Simpson, Secretary of the Fraternity, asking for advice as to the method of applying for a charter.

Immediately before the Fifty-second Convention, held in Detroit, Michigan, it was decided to apply for a charter, but another letter from Brother Simpson, pointed out that the time for the formal chapter notification had passed, and this, together with the advice from other Deke friends that other applications would take precedence of ours, led to a postponement of this step.

In the spring of 1899, most of the men who had been associated with Brother Upson had gone into other fraternities. There still remained with him, however, Brothers H. G. Holler, J. H. Fager, J. S. Conway, C. H. Holmes, of Θ, and C. E. Koerper, of N, together with a few more brothers from other chapters. Brother Upson again wrote to the Council, asking for an interview, and in reply was invited to a Council meeting, held in the rooms of the Δ K E Club, then in Thirty-first Street, New York City. At the appointed time Brother Upson called on Brother Frank S. Williams, President of the Council, and together they visited Brother Simpson. These gentlemen pointed out the difficulties of his undertaking and advised him to give it up. Upon leaving he was overtaken by Brother A. G. Warren, of the Council, to whose powerful influence and helpful advice, this chapter largely owes its establishment. Brother Warren promised his assistance and advised him not to give up. He suggested to Brother Upson that he endeavor to obtain letters and petitions from as many Dekes as possible. Brother Upson interviewed Brother Theodore Roosevelt, then Governor of the State of New York, and obtained his endorsement and the promise of a letter to the convention. Many Buffalo Dekes were visited with good results. Visits were also made to the Hamilton, Cornell and Rochester Chapters. Shortly after this a formal application for a charter was sent in to the Council accompanied by a letter composed by Brothers Upson and Holler. This letter reviewed at length the work already accomplished, and outlined the plans for the future.

In the fall of 1899, a formal Council visit was arranged and a meeting was held in room C of the Continental Hotel and was attended by Bros. Warren, Williams, Safford, Brockway, and Wilcox, of the Council, Bros. Upson, Conway, Holler, Fager, Mackay, Whitmore, and Flagler, and a number of alumni Dekes. Resolutions were made favoring the establishment of a chapter. Shortly after this the movement was organized as the X Club, holding regular meetings in Room 110, Franklin Hall, University Dormitories, Brother Upson acting as President, and Bro. Holler as Secretary-Treasurer. A final petition was prepared, a photograph of the applicants taken and arrangements made to attend the Fifty-third Convention held at Springfield, Mass. Brothers Upson and Conway represented the petitioners. After the meeting adjourned they were surrounded by delegates showering their congratulations upon them.

The next event of interest was the installation of the chapter in Odd Fellow's Temple, Broad and Cherry Sts., Philadelphia, December 9, 1899, followed by a banquet at the University Club.

The name "Δ K" was suggested by Bro. Warren, B Φ.

The first regular meeting was held January 4, 1900, in 110 Franklin Hall, the room of Brothers Upson and Holler.

The following spring a room was rented in Odd Fellows' Temple and the meetings for the remainder of the year were held in it, as the proper amount of secrecy could not be maintained in the dormitories.

In the fall the first few meetings were held in 108 Franklin Hall, University Dormitories. The chapter then rented a house, 3709 Woodland Ave., and held its first meeting there October 29, 1900. Owing to the undesirable neighborhood and poor repair of the house the chapter removed to its present quarters at 307 So. 39th St., in February, 1902, which property it has since purchased as the site for a future chapter house worthy of the chapter and the university.

M'GILL UNIVERSITY

Montreal, Canada

CHARTERED, NOVEMBER 15, 1900

IN the latter part of the spring of 1899 a body of McGill undergraduates, including Messrs. Ainley, Stockwell, and Carnochan, decided to form a society, under the name of A Φ E. In the fall of that year there were seventeen members, and on the 11th of December a motion was passed to petition Δ K E.

Meanwhile, there was in process of organization a second society with the same motives and purposes. The active members of the second society included Messrs. Ward, Redon, Goodall, Rutherford, and Robertson.

Having heard of the intention of the first organization, a correspondence sprang up between the two societies, and after much deliberation it was finally decided to amalgamate.

At a meeting which took place on May 1, 1900, these two societies were united under the name of T A. Besides those mentioned above, there were present at this meeting, Messrs. Laurie, Ells, Taylor, McKenzie, and Boulter, and during the year Messrs. Fry, Wainwright, Kissane, Forbes, and Ogilvie were admitted.

Previous to the amalgamation, correspondence had been entered into with A Φ, our only Canadian sister, who gave much encouragement and valuable assistance to the petitioners; some of the other chapters were also written to and favorable replies received.

The first work of the new society was to prepare a petition and this was done without delay; the result was a visit from the Grand Council of Δ K E early in October, 1900. Bro. F. W. Williams was one of the delegates, and it was due in no small measure to his support that a charter was finally granted to T A by the 54th Convention, in November, 1900.

From May, 1901, to May, 1909, the chapter house was 20 Shuter Street, and on the latter date we moved to our present house, 66 McTavish Street.

CHARTERED, DECEMBER 12, 1901

THE men who originally petitioned for the Σ P Chapter of Δ K E, were members of a local society that was designated by the name of Σ P H, which in turn, succeeded the Λ Σ Chapter of the Φ Γ Δ Fraternity. However, none of the petitioners were ever members of the national fraternity, but had entered the local organization at a period some time after the separation had been consummated.

Various reasons were advanced at that time for this withdrawal from Φ Γ Δ, but the principal explanation is advanced in the following short summary of events that led up to the separation. The local chapter of Φ Γ Δ was founded at Stanford University in October, 1891, and from the very date of its installation at that institution, it took and maintained not only the rank as the strongest chapter in the fraternity, but it led in standing among the Greek letter societies at Stanford. However, in and around the year 1894, the chapter began to feel the influence of resolutions by the national organization which were detrimental in their effect upon the chapter of Λ Σ. The immediate result of these influences was an influx of members of Φ Γ Δ from the smaller colleges in the east and the middle west into Stanford,— men who came west to take advantage of the improved educational facilities offered by the western institution.

The local chapter found it impossible to affiliate these men, principally for local reasons and because of the fact that their presence affected the results of the annual rushing. Through the Stanford Chapter, a systematic endeavor was made to secure a change in the policy of the national fraternity, but all of its efforts were unavailing. In 1896, the western members of Φ Γ Δ fully realized that no action would be taken by the national organization toward alleviating these conditions, and it was this circumstance that led to the next action by the members of Γ Σ Chapter.

Acting upon these circumstances and placing local interests before national interests, the charter of Φ Γ Δ was surrendered to the national convention in the year 1896, and the individual memberships of the men in the chapter were also withdrawn. Twenty-five of the twenty-eight alumni of the chapter signified their approval of this action by also sending into the same convention their resignation as members of the fraternity.

Having taken this action, the erstwhile fraternity men secured for themselves a house and established a local organization, which they designated by the name of Σ P H. This society was a strong factor in college affairs, for the men that made up its membership were among the strongest individuals in college.

Although the original members of Σ P H had no intention of applying for another charter from a different fraternity than that from which they had withdrawn, the question soon presented itself as to the wisdom of such a step. Becoming assured that this action would be advisable upon their part, the members of this society decided to petition for a charter from Δ K E.

In 1901, a petition was forwarded to the national convention of that fraternity which was convened at that time in the city of Washington, D. C. Upon due investigation this petition was acted upon and the charter granted to the members of Σ P H for a chapter of Δ K E at Stanford.

Σ P was the name applied to the new chapter when it was installed at the western college on February 8, 1902, and in pursuance of "Deke" traditions, early established its lead among the Greek letter societies at that institution, maintaining this position from that time on.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

Champaign, Ill.

CHARTERED, NOVEMBER 17, 1904

THE first serious attempt to install a Δ K E Chapter at the University of Illinois was frowned upon by the Convention of 1897, which refused the body of petitioners a charter and so discouraged them that they gave up the quest. Nothing definite was again attempted until the fall of 1902, when Bro. C. C. Pickett (Δ Δ and B Φ), then, the only Δ K E on the faculty, was approached one night (December 9, 1902), by two bodies of young men, each desirous of applying for a charter of Δ K E at Illinois. They were headed respectively by G. B. Clark, son of G. E. Clark, A A, '71, and E. M. East. After some deliberation the two bodies combined, and a formal application for a charter was drawn up, the other signers being: Reef, R. C. Mathews, C. A. Schroeder, Dehn, Mather, Hinman, H. K. Collins, Mead, Royall, Oldefest, Smith, and Stenger. Although these men became formally organized in January, 1903, it was not until the fall of 1903 that they rented a house and became publicly known as the Sphinx Club. The members were pledged to keep up the struggle for a Δ K E Charter, and if one should not be granted, they were not to join any other college secret organization. Twenty-one more names were added to the Sphinx before the charter came, but G. B. Clark and J. W. Stenger of the original petitioners died before they were permitted to join Δ K E.

Bro. Pickett, accompanied by C. C. Royall, attended the Syracuse convention in 1903 and succeeded in impressing the Illinois claims to a charter so forcibly upon those assembled that a resolution was passed directing the Council to investigate the petitioning body and submit a report to the next convention. This report was favorable, news of the Council's approval being received at Illinois before the delegation, headed by Hinman and accompanied by all the faculty Δ K E members, departed for the Chicago convention of 1904. All the chapters present at this convention (38 in number), were in favor of granting a charter to Illinois, and in honor of the close connection of Bro. C. C. Pickett, Δ Δ, and Bro. M. H. Robinson, Π, with the movement it was decided to christen the new chapter Δ Π. The installation took place in Champaign on December 17, 1904.

Being but four years in Δ K E, Δ Π has not had much opportunity to make history. In the fall of 1907, the chapter moved into a new house built for them by a local real-estate man after the plans of Bro. Oldefest, '06. In 1908 a fine lot was purchased, and the chapter hopes to be able to build thereon in the near future.

RHO DELTA

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

Madison, Wis.

CHARTERED, NOVEMBER 15, 1906

RHO DELTA, the youngest chapter on the roll, received its charter from the convention, held at Springfield, Mass., on November, 1906, and was formally installed on December 22 of the same year. The chapter at that time numbered seventeen men, the survivors of the local society, P Δ Φ, which for the past two years had been petitioning the national fraternity for a charter. These seventeen names, emblazoned on P Δ's honor roll as the winners of her charter, are: Milton L. Woodward, '07; G. Stewart McConochie, '06; John J. Moffat, '05; Frank L. Waller, '07; Carlyle K. Brinkman, '08; Fred W. Dohmen, '08; Raymond P. Sanborn, '08; Harold L. Geisse, '06; Franklin G. Floete, '08; William R. Holmes, '09; Harry S. Baldwin, '09; Carl M. Kehr, '08; Seth B. Atwood, '07; Arthur H. Pitz, '08; John W. Wilce, '10; B. Fletcher Crandall, '10; Monte F. Appel, '10.

Not content with resting on their laurels as winners of a Deke charter, these men immediately began devising ways and means, whereby the newly-born chapter might be housed in a home of its own in true Deke style. Substantial aid was found in the enthusiastic and loyal support of the Madison Alumni body and no P Δ chronicle would be complete which did not set forth the roster of that little band of devoted Dekes, to whom P Δ owes not only her chapter home but her very existence as well.

They are: Dr. F. F. Galpin, M, '94; Prof. C. J. Galpin, M, '85; Prof. E. A. Gilmore, Ψ Φ, '93; Prof. M. S. Slaughter, Ψ Φ, '83; Mr. David A. Crawford, Ψ, '05.

Spurred on by the hearty co-operation of these men, P Δ soon succeeded in crystallizing its house projects into a most substantial reality and by February, 1908, was housed in its present comfortable quarters, an old colonial mansion, set on the bluffs of Lake Mendota, in the heart of the city's most desirable residential district.

Now with everything in her favor, and the hardest fights of her career behind her, P Δ has been making giant strides to the fore and striving to impress, as firmly as possible, the Δ K E ideals of manhood upon the little world of student affairs within her university. Whether, or how well, she is succeeding is not for us to say. It is enough that we look toward her future with untroubled eye, confident of her ability to forge herself into a powerful link in the Deke Chain, and to constitute herself an influential force in the development of the highest things of college life here at the University of Wisconsin.
